March 2010

Happy March!

It will be interesting to see what the weather brings this month! We have been having lots of fun outside. Snow, mud, rain, puddles and clear ground have provided a new and exciting experience each day we go out! Please continue to have your children prepared for the changing weather!

Thank you....

To all of our friends who have brought in treats for the animals, to Meg for picking up animal bedding, to Alexandria and Christian for the lift the flap book, to Noga, for seasonal cutouts and snowpants, to the LeBlancs and Allison (CH2 Parent) for extra winter outerwear.

Monday, March 1 was Saint David's day. Saint David is the Patron Saint of Wales. Since Miss Leticia, whose husband is from Scotland, is here on Monday's she shared special Welsh traditions with us. We sang songs in Welsh and had a delicious treat of Welsh cakes and sweet tea! Her daughter, Rhea, made a special appearance, dressed in traditional Welsh clothing. It was quite an exciting
